Dani Campbell To Choose Her First Mate On Board The Inaugural Sweet Caribbean Cruise

San Francisco, CA (August 14, 2009) – Single lesbians from coast to coast are buzzing about the chance to win a date with Dani Campbell on board the Sweet Caribbean Cruise, Nov. 8-15. Lesbians on board the cruise will have a chance to win the heart of the fearless and fabulous "futch" firefighter sensation from MTV's "A Shot of Love with Tila Tequila." A fan favorite, the 31-year-old lesbian's appearance as one of 16 suitors -- and one of the show's two finalists -- on the bisexual dating reality show has translated into a life Dani never expected.

Dani is now setting sail with Sweet, a new lesbian travel company, on their inaugural cruise departing from New Orleans and traveling to tropical locales such as Mexico and Belize. Dani will mix and mingle with all of the women on board looking for her next first mate.

Dani joins an already star-studded roster of lesbian entertainers and celebrities, including the legendary comic Suzanne Westenhoefer, singer-songwriters Edie Carey and Jen Foster, hot and out actresses Cathy DeBuono and Jill Bennett, the sexy and opinionated ladies of "Cherry Bomb," and many more.

A firefighter from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Dani wants to use her newfound fame to show people it's OK to "be yourself." A self-described "futch," a cross between a femme and butch, Dani is also hard at work creating a new, androgynous clothing line for women called "pinkboybluegirl."

Sweet, a new lesbian travel company, is completely carbon-neutral and will offer community service excursions in the departure city of New Orleans, and in port cities along the way. The luxury cruise promises off-the-hook parties by Dinah Shore's Club Skirts promoters, lesbian entertainment every night, and opportunities for shore excursions that include deep sea diving, swimming with dolphins, jungle expeditions and tours of ancient Mayan ruins. Prices start at $36 per person, for 12 months, with Sweet's no-fee, no-interest payment plan. For more information, visit www.discoversweet.com.
